

My Heart in a Suitcase

ARTSPOWER NATIONAL TOURING THEATRE

My Heart in a Suitcase is ArtsPower's compelling dramatic adaptation of Anne Lehmann Fox's courageous autobiographical account of her experiences as a 12-year old on the Kindertransport out of Germany. Beginning in December 1938, Anne and 10,000 other Jewish children fled Germany, without their parents, on the Kindertransport, afraid and uncertain of what the future would hold for them and the families they were forced to leave behind.

Young Anne and her family no longer feel safe in their Berlin home. With the Nazis in power, life in 1938 Germany is changing all too quickly. In order to protect their daughter, Anne's parents must make a most difficult decision to send their daughter on the Kindertransport out of Germany to find safe haven in England.

Living without her parents, Anne struggles to bring meaning in a world that seems to be filled with hatred and violence. She must rely on her own courage and the generosity of others to survive.

ArtsPower's My Heart in a Suitcase is a gripping, poignant, and dramatic tribute to the power of love and the strength of the human spirit to triumph over unimaginable hardship.
